

Real Estate Agency Disclosure

When you begin discussions with a California Department of Real Estate License Agent regarding a real estate mortgage lending transaction, you should understand what type of agency relationship you have with that agent. A Mortgage Broker acts as the agent for the borrower in the mortgage loan transaction and may act as the limited agent of the lender for certain purposes including, but not limited to, making disclosures, ordering appraisal and credit reports, and assembling underwriting information. The brokerage has the following affirmative obligations:

To the Borrower:

1. Fiduciary responsibility of the utmost care, integrity, honesty, and loyalty in dealing with the borrower.

To the Borrower and the Lender:

1. Fiduciary responsibility of the utmost care, integrity, honesty, and loyalty in dealing with the borrower and the lender.
2. Diligent exercise of reasonable skill and care in performances of the agent's duties.
3. A duty of honesty and fair dealing and good faith.
4. A duty to disclose all facts known to the agent materially affecting the value or desirability of the property and/or credit risk of the transaction that are not known to or within the diligent attention and observation of the parties.

The above duties of the agent in this transaction do not relieve you from the responsibility to protect your own interests. You should carefully read all agreements to assure that they adequately express your understanding of this transaction. A Mortgage Broker is a person qualified to advise about real estate loan transactions. If legal or tax advice is desired, consult a professional in those fields.
